Emerging Leaders: Closing The Generational Gap

Raven Solomon

Keynote Speaker, Author and Strategist, Raven Solomon Enterprises

For the first time in history, there are four or more generations in the workplace – whose differences can create frustration, tension and breakdowns in communication. Walk away from this session understanding the general characteristics of each generation, why these characteristics are as they are, and how they show up at work. Discover techniques for communicating more effectively between generations and embrace generational diversity as an organizational strength.

OPENING RECEPTION

Step back in time to the golden age of New York City, where the glamour and elegance of bygone eras await. Be transported to the roaring twenties with jazz bands, flappers, speakeasy-inspired cocktails and cigar rollers, reminiscent of the Prohibition era. Explore a meticulously recreated setting inspired by the Art Deco architecture and opulent ballrooms of old New York. Immerse yourself in the timeless allure of vintage NYC as you dance the night away under glittering chandeliers and starlit skies.

Innovation FORUM

Innovation Forum – Keynote Speaker

Innovation Lab

Josh Linkner

*Co-founder and Chairman,
Platypus Labs*

Every day, leaders are challenged with creating buy-in, frustrated by unproductive innovation cycles and disappointed with the outcomes. Lacking a deliberate plan to cultivate company-wide innovation leads to stalled growth, squandered competitive advantage, low morale and engagement and depleted shareholder value. In this session, learn how to break the pattern.

Guest Program

Raising the Bar

Chaunté Lowe

Olympic Medalist, Author, Cancer Survivor and Mother

Chaunté Lowe is an American athlete who competes in the high jump and is a four-time Olympian. In this session, she talks about a childhood threatened by poverty, homelessness and constant displacement, where unbeknownst to her at the time, she first began to develop unwavering resilience. Realizing that athletic success was her path out of poverty, she committed herself to the dream of an Olympic medal.
